APPLICATION FOR EXHIBITION SPRING 2017

Current policies and procedures regarding exhibitions at GALLERY 1010 are under the auspices of the gallery director Elysia Mann, associate director Austin Pratt, and the advisor to the directors, Deb Schmerler. All exhibition proposals will be reviewed by a confidential Selections Committee comprised of undergraduate and graduate students from the School of Art.

GALLERY 1010 is a student-run exhibition space available to all undergraduate and graduate students at the University of Tennessee. In addition, students from other universities and artists outside of the School of Art are welcome to have work exhibited ONLY through nomination and representation of a UTK student.

The School of Art reserves the right to request exhibition opportunities for special events and needs that will benefit the program as a whole. If your application is approved for an exhibition, you are required to comply with all rules and regulations of GALLERY 1010 and The University of Tennessee as established by the Directors and outlined in the GALLERY 1010 Terms and Conditions packet. Failure to do so may revoke any approval to exhibit.
